Harvey grew up on his parent's farm near MacGregor, MB. In 2000, he left his job and in faith asked God to be able to support and raise his family on his own farm. In the year 2002, after his wife Joanne read Revolution In World Missions, a new passion for the billions of lost souls in Asia was formed. Realizing the responsibility given to all believers through the Great Commission, and seeing the opportunity to become senders, they signed up for Gospel for Asia's national missionary sponsorship programme. They had no idea where that first obedient step of prayerful sponsorship would lead them.

Harv soon became a Volunteer Representative for GFA in Manitoba. The Lord only confirmed His calling on their lives and in January 2011, he moved his family to serve full-time in the Stoney Creek head office. Harv helps represent the ministry of Gospel for Asia at conferences and churches across Canada. He has been to the mission field in Asia and has witnessed the incredible commitment and Christ-like service of the brothers and sisters who are supported by GFA.

Harv writes: "We believe it is our great privilege and responsibility to represent our national brothers and sisters serving on the mission fields in Asia. We realize that partnering with them is the most effective way to reach nearly 3 billion precious souls, most of whom live in Asia, who are still unreached with the Gospel. Our desire is to help where we can to share about the work of God through these brothers and sisters, seeking prayer and financial support for their labours, which are reaping a harvest of souls."
